

27 Close Calls: The 27 Most Dangerous Situations Women Encounter and How to Deal with Them (Special Edition)

27 CLOSE CALLS is a very special book. It is the first safety-from-violence book especially for women, based on true stories of women who got into dangerous situations and came out okay, or at least survived. Created by a team of investigators at Strider Lab, 27 CLOSE CALLS describes the CLOSE CALL METHOD, which can make any woman safer than she has ever been. As one police chief said, This book is a game-changer because it gives women the knowledge of how perps operate; so they will know how the game is played. After completing hundreds of cases of violence-against-women, Striders team discovered that for every woman who got into a dangerous situation and got hurt, another woman was in the exact same situation and came out okay. Whats the difference? Thats whats the book is all about - sharing the best hero moves that women made to escape, fight off or survive an attack. The good news? They are all learnable. By reading this book, women can learn the primary methods predators use to attack them; the when, where and how of attacks, and the best ideas and tricks to get out of danger. Striders investigators left no stone unturned and examined situations that included date rape, assault, kidnapping, domestic violence, and gang rape. If it can happen to you, its in this book At least one out of four women will be violently attacked in their lifetimes and up to 90% will be targetted one or more times. So this is a book every woman should read not only for herself, but her friends as well. What to do if your friend has been drugged at a bar? How to handle a date rapist? Whats the best way to address an armed robber? Its all in the book. Every chapter has an interesting and actual story - many of which read like whodunnits - except that the question is not who done it?, but rather whats the best way to deal with a close call like that? The Close Call Method(TM) can be learned by anyone at any age and doesn't require physical self-defense training. It is, as one undercover agent put it self-defense for the brain. It is more likely to keep you safe than any weapon, any paradigm, even 911. Over 200 people were involved in creating this book and everyone of them wants you and the people you care about to be safe; so open the front cover and let's get started!
