

Requital

Havana, Cuba-Summer 1959. Americans still cling to a romantic image of this Caribbean paradise...with its swaying palms, warm, velvet nights and exotic musical beats. But, in Cuba, the tension is tinder dry. Fidel Castro's followers are armed and dangerous. Streaming into Havana from the countryside by train, bus and oxcart, the campesinos are in a frenzy to see their leader and proclaim their liberation at the national celebration on July 26. Jennifer Roberts, a naive young American, arrives in Havana on July 25. What was billed as a Cuban Mardi Gras quickly turns deadly, and she is forced to accept the hospitality of a wealthy casino owner, Mike McAlister, and his handsome manager, Jack Sendoya. Jennifer and Jack begin a desperate, life-changing love affair. When plans are set for Jack's escape from Fidel's tyranny, he vanishes into a world of conspiracy and betrayal. Jennifer is left to face a life without him. Years later, Jack returns...awakening a lifelong love, questions about his mysterious disappearance, enemies from his past who still watch and wait...and a vengeful obsession.
