

In 1899 a critic called one of Gustav Klimt's portraits the most beautiful picture ever painted by an Austrian. Only a year or so later, Klimt (1862-1918) was excoriated for his brash new style: faces rendered with tender clarity; bodies floating, blurring, and evanescent into shimmering abstract forms. This calendar features a dozen of Klimt's alluring portraits of women: Emilie Flöge, Adele Bloch-Bauer I, Johanna Staude, Margarethe Stonborough-Wittgenstein, and eight others. Size: 12 x 13 in.; opens to 12 x 26 in.
