

A History of the Papacy during the Period of the Reformation: Volume 5, The German Revolt, 1517-1527 (Cambridge Library Collection - European History)

Mandell Creightons five-volume study of the papacy during the Reformation was first published between 1882 and 1894. Lytton Strachey paid an indirect compliment to Creightons work by remarking that the biscuit is certainly dry; but at any rate there are no weevils. Creighton (1843-1901) was an academic and an ordained Anglican. Having studied at Oxford and spent time in the parish of Embleton in Northumberland, he was appointed the first Dixie Professor of Ecclesiastical History at Cambridge, became Bishop of Peterborough and ended his career as Bishop of London. In Volume 5 (1894) Creighton focuses on the beginnings of humanism and the different strands of the Reformation movement in Germany. He discusses Luthers leading role in the movement, and the reaction of the papacy to him. The volume closes with the sack of Rome by Charles Vs troops and Clement VIIs flight to Orvieto in 1527.
