

Letters To Emily About Buying A Handgun

This mini book is a series of letters written to a recently widowed family member who sought advice about buying a handgun. It gives advice on how to evaluate your capability to effectively use a handgun, how to properly choose a handgun that fits you individually, outlines a basic handgun training program and makes suggestions about how to develop a street wise mindset that will help you avoid bad situations. This is a book for handgun beginners who have little or no background with firearms.
