This series was originally published back in 2008 and has been revised and re-edited for this release. Jackson has been called to attend his father, Lord Baymore. The man has never claimed Jackson as his son and Jackson believes this might be his fathers intent. Hes left the Duke of Mardens employ to discover his destiny to remain a nameless bastard or to claim his fathers name. When Jackson stumbles across a man, stripped, beaten, and left in a field to die a slow death, Jackson rescues the man. After all, hes guilty of the same thing wanting a man. Will Holcombe gambled and lost. His meeting with a young, willing man went horribly wrong, and now he must pay for it with his life. Until a man walks up to him and cuts him down. Jackson is like no one Will has ever met before a man strong enough to stand with him, perhaps forever. But Jacksons on a mission. Will his pride blind him to what his life could be if he chose Will and not his father? Or will his pride lead him to a fate worse than death?
